The benefits of using ELSA

ELSA's versatility enables it to be used to evaluate English language competency in a variety of different ways:

- ELSA enjoys recognition by many universities all over the world. ELSA scores are accepted as satisfying the English language requirements for numerous degree courses. Further details on ELSA recognitions can be obtained from the LCCI IQ website or on request.
- ELSA is used by many employers including BASF, Unilever and DaimlerChrysler for recruitment and language skills auditing purposes. Details of how these corporations have integrated ELSA into their HR practices can be obtained upon request.

- ELSA has been adopted by social projects within the European Union including its adoption as a mandatory component in unemployment re-training schemes in Germany and Poland.

Additional details on how ELSA has been used as an assessment tool can be obtained from our Customer Service Team.
